

RAYMOND LO SCHOOL OF FENG SHUI AND DESTINY

GUIDE TO FENG SHUI PRACTITIONERS DIPLOMA EXAM

1. Objective – To ensure the candidate possesses the practical skills to conduct a proper Feng Shui , destiny and I Ching consultation. The successful candidate will be awarded with the Feng Shui Practitioners diploma endorsed by IFSA.
2. Qualification – All students who have completed the 5 courses of the Feng Shui Practitioners Training Programme are eligible to take this exam. However, it is recommended that students should take this exam only when they are confident of their practical knowledge and skill. They should already have some practical experience before taking this exam.
3. Candidates who fail to pass an exam will not be allowed to take the exam again for another 12 months.
4. Format of the exam:
  - The candidate will be required to complete 3 exercises on the subjects of Feng Shui , Four Pillars of Destiny and I Ching Divination.
  - Details of the 3 exercises will be given only at the start of the exam. And the Candidate is given 30 minutes to present the analysis with overhead projector and white board, in front of a panel of examiners which include myself, the organizer, and/or guests.
  - The Duration of the presentation is 30 min. to complete all 3 exercises.
  - The emphasis will be accuracy, understanding of the knowledge, speed, and clarity in presentation, as these are the most important factors of a Feng Shui and destiny consultation.
  - The basic tools for the exam will be provided – such as stationary, thousand year calendar, I Ching coins etc.
5. Registration for the exam – A candidate should register with the organizer in the relevant centre at least 2 weeks prior to the date of the exam.
6. Exam fee - There will be a fee for taking the exam and the amount will be decided by the organizer at the relevant exam centre.
